Start by being open about small things, like if you dislike a movie other people like or have an unusual hobby. Then, build up to being open about more personal things like your political and spiritual views. Try to keep an open mind yourself when discussing personal issues, which will encourage others to

How open are you? I'll be honest: I'm not a very open person. If I were a door, I would be locked most of the time. For a various reasons (I won't get into them here because I'm pretty sure you don't have all day to read this post), I'm suspicious and distrusting of others. Because of my lack of trust, I password-protect
