This is a book of passion. Warren Johnson (geography, San Diego University) involves the reader so effortlessly that, before you know it, you've been taken on a whirlwind tour of our country--what we've done, what we should have done, and what we must do, ecologically and economically, in order to survive.

The new edition of Warren Johnson's Muddling Toward Frugality. We Americans like our simple, direct, and confident statements — just think of “ Yes We Can! ” or “ Reload! ” — so a title like Muddling Toward Frugality (affiliate link) may not immediately grab a book browser ’ s eye. Novelist Edward Abbey noted as much in his preface to the book ’ s original 1978 edition, claiming it “ generates no sex appeal whatsoever. ”
